

105.844

POST CARD

Addressed to Editor of the Evening "Graphic"
Newspaper,
120 Broadway,
New York City

Bearing post office stamp - Newark, Sept. 29
4.30 P.M.
1 1926
N.J.

Hooray for the Graphic. It has the truth about Pig Woman. SHE WAS born in 2 rooms in lower N.Y.
52 years ago. We know she lied but dont want to mix in. Just ask John Solider's wife Mrs. Williams who kept Boarding House in Hoboken on Bloomfield Ave. She can tell you a mouthful when 15 she was a little prostitute (common too) then Fritz Kesselring put her in Family way & married her - then divorced her, then Harry Ketschke married her in Hoboken in 1899 - he divorced her as she was found in Newark (17 Fair St) whorehouse and in 119 Academy St Newark she got raided in 1901 -
1902 Detective Carson, Coakley & Chief Uphous gave her 90 days or a fine. She ruined a Newark Store Keeper out of his money and was in Gillens road house near graveyard in New Brunswick in 1898 1899 too, and was a liar all her life - we can prove it as we lived near her she is a siren.
Harry Ketschke knows. he lives in N.Y. workt for Brooklyn Vault Light Co.